EXPLOSION.

An alarm of fire was sounded a little beforceleven o'clock last Wednesday night, caused by the explosion of fire-works in the bakery of A. J. Bieder. The fire was discovered by a person on the street, who said the first light was a brilliant red followed by one of green. A small stock of sky-rockets, etc., that was near by, explo ded, and for a time there was every indicution of an extensive fire. Mr. Bieder says he had placed two papers of composition for colored fire in a box on a shelf, after the Republican pollification of fast week, and it is supposed these ignited by spontaneous combustion.
